

RCLL'S LEGAL DATABASES

THOMSON REUTERS

WESTLAW™

Available only on-site
Home use is available for Pro se users

Westlaw is a legal research system that makes searches more intuitive and efficient. Search options include advanced searching, plain language searching, KeyCite, and an extensive narrow feature. Our subscription allows access to California & Federal primary law as well as many secondary resources published by West. Most results may be printed, downloaded, or emailed.

Available only on-site

Lexis provides an expansive collection of online content. Search options include advanced searching, plain language searching, and Shepard's citations. Our subscription allows access to California & Federal primary law as well as many secondary resources published by Lexis. Most results may be printed, downloaded, or emailed.

Available only on-site

Powerful online research of CEB practice guides. Our subscription includes digital versions of most of our print collection. Search options allow per legal topic and print title. Results can be printed.

trellis

Available only on-site

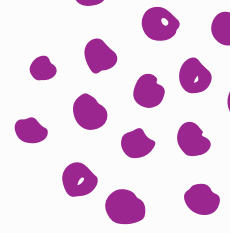

Trellis is a state trial court research + analytics platform w/ insights on judges, opposing counsel, motions, dockets, and more. Use this source to find real examples of various types of motions and verdict amounts by jurisdiction. Users may search by issue, party, judge, or motion type. Court documents are available as PDFs with the ability to download, print, or share via email.

LLMC DIGITAL

A 501 (c)(3) nonprofit committed to 'saving the law'

Available only on-site

LLMC is a non-profit cooperative of libraries dedicated to preserving legal titles and government documents on film, while making copies inexpensively available either in microfiche format or digitally through its on-line service LLMC-Digital. LLMC provides libraries with a reliable, budget-friendly source of film and/or digital replacement when their older, physically deteriorating books became too burdensome to store given diminished use.

Available on-site and at home

EBSCOhost is the world's most-used reference resource. Our subscription includes digital versions of NOLO Press items including forms on a wide range of legal topics. The database is accessible in the library or remotely.

Available on-site and at home

The Vital Law search structure and enriched content organizes legal information topically, putting content in context so you can quickly understand and advise on today's most complex matters.

Available on-site and at home

HeinOnline is the world's largest image-based legal research collection and contains more than nine centuries of legal history. All content is image-based in PDF format just as they appear in the original print copy thus preserving the authenticity of the hard copy in a digital environment.

Available on-site and at home

LegalTrac indexes law review articles and much more. Many full-text articles are available. Coverage of more than 1500 major law reviews. InfoTrac is updated daily with coverage starting from 1980.

Available only on-site

Forms Workflow offers the largest forms database in the country. It streamlines the management and use of forms and provides instant access to a centralized library of more than 60,000 forms including official electronic court forms, corporate, regulatory, and legal forms. Forms can be downloaded as fillable Word or PDF files.