New Year- New Laws

Read it Here

RCLL Staff has compiled a list of a few laws that go into effect this year under topics of COVID-19, health, criminal justice and the workplace.
Fastcase and Casemaker announced the merger of the two companies. Fastcase is a comprehensive research suite of primary law, treatises, legal blogs, analytics, workflow tools, and legal news. Casemaker provides attorneys with affordable access to high quality legal research. RCLL subscribes to Fastcase and to access it you can call or email staff for the login information at 951-368-0368 or lawlibrary.riverside@rclawlibrary.org.

- Riverside County front-line hospital workers get first coronavirus shots
Riverside County front line workers received the Pfizer’s Vaccine on Dec. 17, 2020. The front line workers of Kaiser Permanente Hospital were the first to receive it. About 6,000 doses were sent to the Riverside County and area hospitals are expecting 14,000-15,000 doses. Jennifer Stoever, the first registered nurse in the intense care unit, stated “It's a glimmer of hope... it's a Christmas miracle.”

Laughable Laws: Power to the Plate

Looks to be more interesting reading out there on the roadways. Read about vanity plates and the first amendment.
